

CATTLE JUDGING LANGUAGE

(Explanation of)

He has a great presence – This is the appropriate term to use when all other animals in this class are from miniature breeds.

A great sire's outlook – This bull spent the entire time trying to jump into the dairy-cow judging ring.

He has great bone – The bull is big. Not to be confused with, he has great bone - the bull is horned.

Great doing-ability – He is fat. Not to be confused with, he has great constitution – he is also fat.

He is an athletic bull – Whenever I enter his paddock he jumps the fence at the other end.

He is an athletic sire – He jumps every fence in the district.

He has great hair type – My clippers are broken.

He would be a great dairy-bull – I placed him last in his class.

He is a free moving bull – We last saw him disappearing over a fence when he was unloaded here this morning.

This bull is a great terminal sire – With feet like that he will have to go to the works.

This heifer lacked the femininity of the heifer placed first – This is actually a steer.

I just felt that the others had a bit more class – This entry is rubbish.